

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Real Tour Vision Announces Partnership with Launchsight Solutions

Entirely new suite of interactive products and services are now available!

Traverse City, Michigan Sep 28, 2005 Real Tour Vision has formed a synergistic relationship with LaunchSight Solutions to provide one of the world's largest networks of virtual tour distributors with the ability to begin offering interactive products and services to their new and existing client base. The new division will benefit the virtual tour distributors and their customers alike.

The new division allows the Real Tour Vision virtual tour distributors to continue providing high quality virtual tour services anywhere in the world in addition to offering a suite of interactive products and services. "The Launchsight Solutions division is setup to serve as an extension of each virtual tour distributor's business. Each project that is referred by a virtual tour distributor will be assigned to its own interactive team with built in checks and balances", states David Edwards, Vice President of Sales and Marketing at Real Tour Vision.

Launchsight Solutions has organized a large network of the industry's top artists, programmers and designers and coupled them with project managers that specialize in bridging the gap between the "techies" and the "non-techies. "Our philosophy involves treating each project as if it were our only project", states David Gise, President of Launchsight Solutions.

From Concept to Completion, Launchsight Solutions offers the following custom services:

- Website Design & Website Re-Design
- Website Maintenance
- Flash Development
- CD-Rom Development
- Sales & Marketing Presentations
